Miss Coco Brashear, of West Point, and her guest, Miss Bonita Thompson, of Amarillo, Texas, who arrived Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Randall, were given a delightful party that evening by their host and hostess. Misses Brashear and Thompson have enjoyed a great deal of attention during the last four days. Motion picture show and motor parties and other charming affairs have been given for them.

Mrs. Emma Skillman gave a beautiful garden party Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. The honored guests were Miss Brashear and Miss Thompson, who returned to West Point Sunday afternoon. The guests played tennis, enjoyed the old fashioned rope swing, the hammock, and several out-door games. Lemonade was served on the lawn. At twilight a meat and salad course with ices and cakes were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James B. Randall, Misses Brashear and Thompson, Misses Lenora and Virginia McGavock, Susette and those old

Daguerreotypes

of grandfather, grandmother, and Aunt Mary, and then the quaint pictures of father and mother taken just after the war—money couldn't buy them from you.

Are you forgetful of the fact that future generations would cherish just such pictures of you?

At Hardinsburg this week, and at Irvington Monday.
